What is the course?

This is a full time course for people who may experience learning difficulties/disabilities. This course will help prepare you for the world of work or further education courses. You will be able to build on the skills you already have and learn new skills.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements, however applicants are required to attend an informal interview with the course coordinator. In the instance of oversubscription, entry requirements may be enhanced and you will be advised of this at interview.

What will I be doing?

You will sample a range of vocational areas working toward a Level 1 qualification in Vocational Skills.

You will gain employability skills and work towards a qualification in this area. You will also have the opportunity to participate in work experience.

Qualifications on offer

- OCN NI Award Level 1 in Vocational Skills
- OCN NI Level 1 Award in Social Media
- C&G Level 1 Award in Employability Skills
- C&G Level 1 Award in Personal and Social Skills
- Essential Skills in Literacy, Numeracy and ICT

Qualifications will depend on the level of the students' abilities.

Curriculum offer is subject to review and viable course provisions.

Will I get paid?

You can apply for the Educational Maintenance Allowance (EMA).

You can get advice on other benefits from your local Jobs and Benefits office.

Travel

Applications for assistance with travel costs can be made to your local Educational and Library Board.

Holidays

The course takes the standard Northern Regional College holidays –these are updated every year and are available on our website www.nrc.ac.uk. On commencing the course, you will be given a list of dates.

How long is the course?

The course lasts for 1 year.

Where is the course based?

The course is available in the Ballymena, Ballymoney, Magherafelt and Newtownabbey campuses. See overleaf for contact details.

What can I do after this course?

You can progress on to a 2nd year of study within the Workready programme or progress on to other courses within Northern Regional College or work.
