Course Content

Units include:

- Investigating the Travel and Tourism sector
- The Business of Travel and Tourism
- The UK as a Destination
- Customer Service in Travel and Tourism

If you are accepted onto this course without a Grade C or above in Maths and/or English you will be required to complete the relevant Essential Skills qualification. This will be a compulsory part of your timetable.

Course Aims

A Level 3 BTEC Extended Diploma is a practical, work-related course. You learn by completing projects and assignments that are based on realistic workplace situations, activities and demands. As well as learning about the employment area you have chosen, you develop the skills you need to start or progress a career.

It is equivalent to three A Levels which means when you have finished the course you can choose whether to get a job straight away or go into higher education first. A Level 3 BTEC Extended Diploma can be taken full-time or part-time and is equally suitable for school leavers and mature students.

Special Features

The programme is designed specifically for those intending to seek a career in Travel and Tourism. In addition to classroom teaching and in support of your studies, there will be visits to local facilities and events. Students will receive talks from guest speakers and industry experts and there may be an opportunity for students to achieve a Welcome Host qualification. All new students will partake in a four-day induction programme. This will include a trip which aims to introduce students to the local tourism industry. In second year there may be the opportunity of a further trip. All students will complete

Apply online at apply.nrc.ac.uk to track your application from interview to enrolment. Applications open in February 2016 for courses starting in September.

1 Travel & Tourism students enjoyed a Tourism Business Masterclass as part of the Global Entrepreneurship Week at Newtownabbey Borough Council. Having listened attentively to the guest/motivational speakers the students participated in a workshop involving being spilt into teams and devising a Business Plan for a tourism-related event. This was then presented "Dragon-Den" style to a formal panel of judges who chose 3 finalists. The finalists then re-presented to the entire room of participants, and a vote was cast to select the best idea/business plan.
