Customer Complaints Policy

1. Policy Statement

1.1. Northern Regional College, 'the College', is committed to providing the highest quality of service to all our customers. If a customer is not satisfied with the quality of service provided by the College or College staff, they have the right to complain.

1.2. A complaint may be defined as:

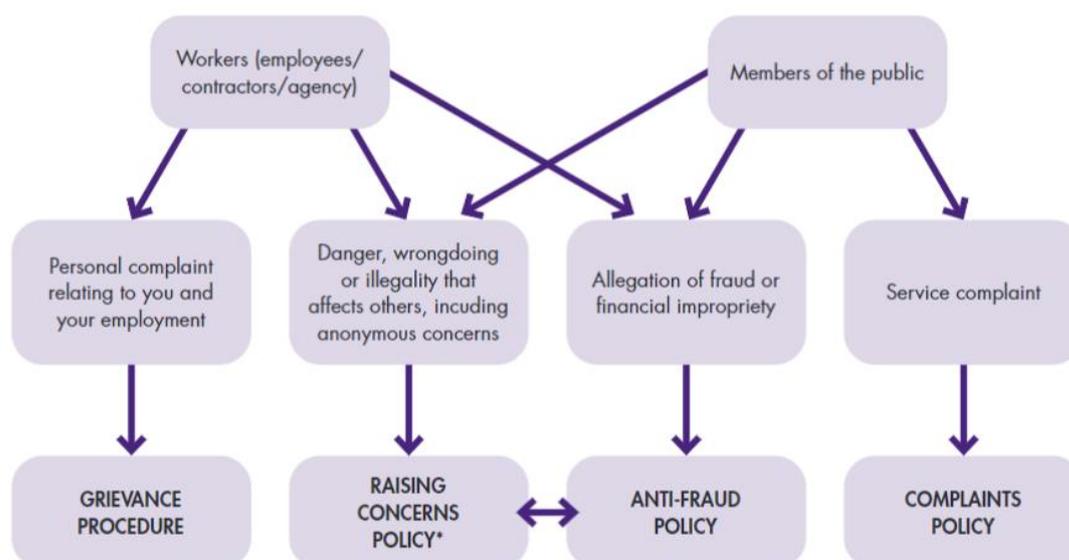

'A statement that something is unsatisfactory or unacceptable.'

1.3. The raising of complaints and the provision of feedback provides the College with an opportunity to improve its services. The College monitors complaints and the outcomes in order to improve the quality of our provision. This policy advises customers of the College's commitment to ensuring that any issues or problems are resolved quickly and as close to the source as possible to the satisfaction of all concerned.

1.4. Anyone who has received a service from the College (i.e. a customer) may raise issues with the College. The diagram below shows which policies we will use in dealing with issues.

2. Scope

2.1. For the purposes of this policy, a customer may be a student, external customer, member of the public or third-party stakeholder.

2.2. The College will comply with the Service Standards for Complaint Handling in line with the same principles as the Public Service agreed by the Permanent Secretaries Group, ensuring that:

- a) There are clear lines of accountability for the handling and consideration of complaints within the College.
- b) Complainants have open and easy access to the College's complaints policy and the information required to enable them to complain about any aspect of service.
- c) Complaints are dealt with through an efficient and effective process.
- d) All investigations are conducted promptly, thoroughly, openly, honestly and objectively.
- e) Complaints are responded to as promptly as possible and all issues raised are addressed.
- f) The College promotes a culture of learning from complaints so that, where necessary, service, processes and practices can be improved.
- g) The organisation monitors the effectiveness of its complaint handling and responsiveness.

2.3. The College also adheres to the service standards of the Northern Ireland Public Sector Ombudsman (NIPSO) – At all times we aim to treat you with respect and courtesy.

2.4. In addition, the College will:

- a) Ensure that all positive comments are passed on to the relevant staff members.
- b) Process all complaints in a fair, consistent and unbiased manner.
- c) Endeavour to communicate with the customer within agreed timeframes throughout the process.
- d) Ensure no customer is disadvantaged as a result of making a complaint.
- e) Promote equality of opportunity and good relations in line with Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act (1998).
- f) Respect confidentiality and protect customers' data in line with legislation.
- g) Monitor and review complaints and compliments for quality assurance and equality monitoring purposes.

2.5. Exemptions to this policy include:

- a) Anonymous complaints, which will not usually be investigated, but will be recorded.
- b) The right of the College not to investigate unreasonable or vexatious complaints.
- c) Matters where another policy or procedure applies; e.g. academic appeals².
- d) Employment matters which fall under human resources policies and procedures as provided by human resources³

² Please refer to Student Assessment Appeals

³ The process for dealing with employment issues will depend on the nature of the complaint and the applicable HR policy or procedure

3. Categories of Customer Feedback

3.1. Compliments and Comments

If a customer feels that the College has exceeded the expected standard of service or wishes to leave a compliment or positive comment, they can:

- a) Complete a Compliments Form (Appendix 2). Forms may be downloaded from the College website or they are available at reception.
- b) E-mail the College at: quality.improvement@nrc.ac.uk
- c) Advise a member of staff in person of the positive experience.

3.2. Informal Complaint

3.2.1. If there is an occasion where a customer is not satisfied with the service the College provides; they have a right to complain.

3.2.2. We would encourage customers, in the first instance, to seek to resolve any issues informally with the relevant member of staff e.g. face-to face discussion.

3.2.3. Where a resolution cannot be found or if it is not appropriate to raise the issues informally, the customer may submit a formal complaint in writing.

3.3 Formal Complaint

See section 4 below.

4. Formal Complaint

4.1. If a customer wishes to make a formal complaint, they can either:

- a) Complete a 'Customer Complaints Form' (Appendix 1). Forms are downloadable from the College website or available at reception;
- b) Email the College at: quality.improvement@nrc.ac.uk
- c) Letters may also be sent to the Quality Manager, Northern Regional College, Trostan Avenue, Ballymena, BT43 5PU.

4.2. If the complaint relates to an academic matter, students have the right to contact and engage with the relevant awarding body directly, however Awarding Organisations will normally only consider a complaint after it has been managed in accordance with the College's Complaints Policy.

4.3. If a customer wishes to complain verbally, they will be asked to confirm details of their complaint in writing.

4.4. If assistance is required with the completion of or the submission of a complaint, customers should contact the Quality Manager for support at quality.improvement@nrc.ac.uk

4.5. Complaints should be submitted to the College no later than three months from the date of the issue arising. In exceptional circumstances, the College may exercise discretion with this timescale.

4.6. Complaints may be submitted on behalf of someone else, for example a person under the age of 13, or a vulnerable adult. If you are making a complaint on behalf of someone over 13, consent from the individual or power of authority may be required.

4.7. All formal complaints will be forwarded to the relevant Responsible Owner for an open and objective investigation⁴ .

- 4.8. The investigation will be based on the information provided by the complainant at the time of making their initial complaint, together with any supplementary evidence obtained through the investigation.
- 4.9. Upon completion of the investigation, a written response will be issued to the complainant.
- 4.10. For the purposes of this policy, the Responsible Owner is defined as the individual appointed to investigate the complaint.
- 4.11. The College will endeavour to adhere to the timeframes detailed in Table 1.
- 4.12. If, for reasons beyond the College's control the investigation and outcome exceeds, or is likely to exceed the timeframes set out in Table 1, the customer will be notified in writing as soon as practicably possible. Please also refer to Complaints Process Chart (Appendix 3)

Table 1: Complaint Timeframes

Communication	Response Time
Complaint acknowledgement letter/email to customer	5 working days* from receipt of complaint
Letter/email issued to complainant if further information required to progress complaint	Clarification information to be returned within 10 working days of receipt of complaint
Complaint response letter/email to customer	Within 20 working days from date acknowledgement letter/email issued, or from date clarification information is received from customer (if applicable)
*Working days are those days on which the College is open. Weekends, statutory days, Bank Holidays and other College closures are classed as 'non-working' days. Complaints specific to course admissions will be acknowledged within 2 working days from receipt of complaint. Complaints specific to course admissions will be responded to within 5 working days from date acknowledgement letter/email is issued.

⁴ In the event that the complaint made is about the Principal and Chief Executive, the Chair of the Audit Committee will appoint a suitable person to investigate and report. Any appeal will then be to the Governing Body

5. Complaint Appeals

- 5.1. If a customer is dissatisfied with the College response to their formal complaint, they have the right to appeal. Appeals should be submitted in writing, with full details of the grounds for appeal, to the Quality Manager. The grounds for appeal should relate only to the information provided by the complainant at the time of making the initial complaint or the supplementary evidence obtained through the investigation.
- 5.2. Following receipt of an appeal the College will endeavour to adhere to the timeframes detailed in Table 2.

Table 2: Appeal Timeframes

Communication	Response Time
Complainant submits appeal to the College	Within 10 working days from date customer receives complaint response
Appeal acknowledgement letter/email to customer	Within 5 working days from receipt of appeal from customer
Appeal response letter/email to customer	Within 20 working days from date acknowledgement letter/email issued

- 5.3. Appeals will be considered by an individual(s) with no previous connection to the original complaint. The individual(s) appointed to consider the appeal request will depend on the nature of the complaint and appeal lodged.
- 5.4. If, for reasons beyond the College's control, the investigation and outcome exceed the timeframe or are likely to exceed the timeframe, the customer will be notified in writing, as soon as practicably possible.

6. Communications

- 6.1. Complaint meetings and phone calls are confidential. If a meeting is required to resolve the issue, minutes will be taken and made available upon request to those in attendance. If the complainant identifies any inaccuracies the minute will be reviewed, and where an amendment is agreed a revised minute will be issued.
- 6.2. College employees have a reasonable expectation of privacy in the workplace and to protect their privacy the College does not consent to conversations being recorded, unless express consent has been obtained in advance.

7. NIPSO and CMA – Formal Complaints

- 7.1. It is hoped that the College will be able to resolve any complaint through the complaints procedure. However, if the customer remains dissatisfied with the outcome they have the right to raise the matter with the awarding organisation (where applicable) or the Northern Ireland Ombudsman's Office (NIPSO), in his/her role as Commissioner for Complaints.
- 7.2. The customer can complain to NIPSO; however, NIPSO will normally only consider a complaint after it has been managed in accordance with the College's Complaints Policy, and where it is received within six months of completing the College's complaints process.
- 7.3. Contact details for the Ombudsman (NIPSO) are:
Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman
Progressive House
33 Wellington Place
Belfast

8. Monitoring Complaints and Compliments

8.1. The College welcomes and values all feedback from customers. The College analyses feedback and areas of complaint in order to improve services. All complaints will be dealt with sensitively and in all cases the documentary evidence gathered and stored remains confidential to those involved. Statistical information will be made available for Quality and Equality monitoring purposes.

9. Communication

9.1. This policy is accessible to all external parties on the College website at <https://www.nrc.ac.uk/your-application/terms-and-conditions> and to students on the Student Hub and to staff on Canvas.
